

indemnity insurance

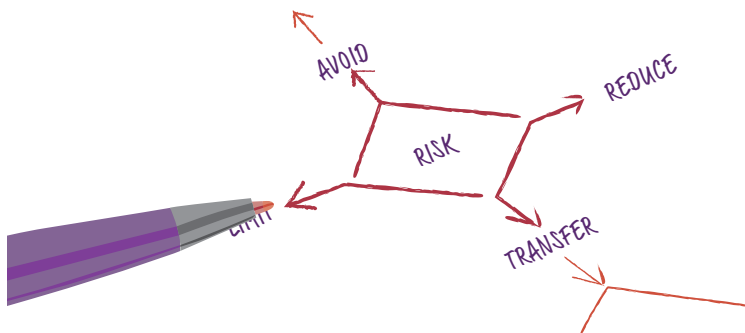

All financial members are covered by the HSUWA's professional indemnity insurance. The sum insured is $20 million (and $80 million in any one policy year)*

Indemnity insurance provides protection for you against claims for breach of professional duty because of a negligent act, error or omission relating to your work.

the income derived from private practice is less than $45,000 per annum). It will also cover you for any practice provided in a voluntary capacity.

Very importantly the HSUWA insurance extends to cover you for legal costs and expenses arising from any breach or alleged breach of professional duty of care, of professional codes or ethics and complaints received in relation to professional misconduct or unprofessional conduct. Your employer generally does NOT cover you for the legal costs and expenses that might be incurred in relation to such disciplinary matters.

Members are even covered for claims reported after your membership ceases, provided the issues giving rise to the claim occurred while you were a financial member

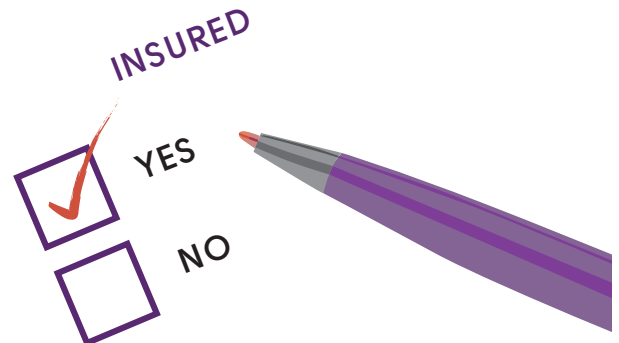

The insurance is provided by Insurance Brokers, Scott & Broad on behalf of VERO Insurance Ltd.

The HSUWA's PII policy meets the standards of each of the National Board's, which include requirements for indemnity insurance .

HSUWA members are covered firstly by your employer through their indemnity insurance arrangements and secondly by the HSUWA's policy.

Because the HSUWA's policy covers you for claims your employer provided PII may not (eg professional misconduct) you can safely declare to your board that you have the necessary PII in place.

The HSUWA's insurance policy provides additional cover for your employment as well as extending to private practice (provided
